Q: What is the value of a free public library card?
A: More than $2 Million dollars!

A statistical report run by the Suburban Library Cooperative for the Chesterfield Township Library analyzed the cost and number of times a physical, barcoded item was checked out of the library from January through December 2018, and included books, DVDs, audiobooks, music CDs, and kits with STEM supplies, musical instruments, American Girl dolls, and book club sets.

Remarkably, the cost of those items borrowed by patrons of the Chesterfield Township Library totaled more than $2 Million dollars! Residents are encouraged to stop by the library and pick up a free library card to start saving today.

Community Art Show
June 10-15 ALL DAY EVENT
The library would like to give local artists a chance to have their talent and work recognized by fellow artists and the general public. All ages may bring art to be displayed in the library’s main meeting room. The purpose of the program is to make artistic experiences available to the community which will enhance its appreciation and understanding of various art forms. All mediums are welcome. Contact the library in advance if you are interested in displaying your art at this event.

Community Sharing Event
July 25 11 a.m. - 6 p.m.
Share and trade flowers, vegetables, and crafts. Help create a network of giving, sharing, unity, and empowerment with your neighbors. No sales allowed. This is a 100% free exchange event. Registration is required by July 18th.

Libraries are a smart investment.
